Fi Pase Should Have First.

Provident W. E. My called attention to the fact that a negrent will be held in connection with the Philadelphia convention and that II Pase should, if possible, have a fact. The chamber of commerce, he deliared, should not up the money to say for a fleat, for the reason that it would be a big advertisement for the city.

After some discussion of the proposition, M. P. Carlock was appointed barrows of a committee to take my the matter with the chamber of committees. M. Carlock named an associates on the committee, George L. Walicke, F. M. Fresil and C. R. Thissell.

Recommended that the local vigilance committee had been compiled during the past week to refuse and moment of two advertising bropesitions, one, an automobile directory and the other an advertising thermometer.

A committee to device ways and means for easing money to pay the expenses of Mr. Rowlands to the Photodelphia convention was appointed composed of P. M. Besti, from Athlewer and J. B. Page.
